Dear Editor:

We hope that you will consider using our camera-ready vignettes when you have space available. With your help, and the help of your readers, we can make a difference for these deserving animals. Periodically, we will issue a new story about one of the numerous animals helped through a grant by Pet Peeves, Inc., "the voice for Long Island pets," to a local rescue group or no-kill shelter. Pet Peeves is the umbrella organization that raises funds so that those volunteers who are out there rescuing, spaying, and caring for these animals, can continue their efforts.

Pet Peeves, Inc. is a 501(c) 3 organization, completely driven by volunteers. Donations are tax deductible to the highest extent of the law.

Thank you in advance for your kind support!

Mugsy

Mugsy, a year-old French Bulldog, as rescued by The Animal Lovers League after a caller alerted the group that, "a dog was dying in a crate at a neighbor's house." After numerous efforts to intervene, Mugsy was finally brought out and rushed to a veterinary hospital, covered in urine and feces, his overgrown nails curling into his poor little feet and every rib and bone of his hips and spine sticking out. Yet, for all his suffering, his body wiggled with joy at the attention he was receiving. Despite liver abnormalities and a kidney infection from lack of water, minor surgery to neuter him and correct a "plumbing problem," with proper care, he sprang back. After many baths the stains on his coat disappeared. Mugsy has since been placed with a new pet parent who absolutely adores him.

You can help animals, like Mugsy, by making a donation to Pet Peeves, which aids Long Island's abused, unwanted and neglected pets.
