

Thank you, Pet Peeves for helping to give PIP a second chance!

Pip

There are times when people find the world caving in around them and things getting worse by the minute. Pip's guardian, a young man of 35, was dying of AIDS. To make matters worse, he could no longer take care of Pip, his beloved companion of 12 years. Friends passed her from one to the other, but no one could give her a permanent home. A fellow rescuer e-mailed the post detailing her story to The Animal Lovers League saying that her resources were running out and she would be euthanized within the week. The only place left in the shelter was the bathroom, but the alternative was worse. Her owner's friends brought her in, and after a few days in hiding, she started to explore her surroundings. Now Pip has the free run of the office, greeting people for a pat and napping in patches of sun. Today, she's a very happy gal!

Dear Editor:

We hope that you will consider using our camera-ready vignettes when you have space available. With your help, and the help of your readers, we can make a difference for these deserving animals. Periodically, we will issue a new story about one of the numerous animals helped through a grant by Pet Peeves, Inc., "the voice for Long Island pets," to a local rescue group or no-kill shelter. Pet Peeves is the umbrella organization that raises funds so that those volunteers who are out there rescuing, spaying, and caring for these animals, can continue their efforts.

Pet Peeves, Inc. is a 501(c) 3 organization, completely driven by volunteers. Donations are tax deductible to the highest extent of the law.

Thank you in advance for your kind support!
